Tom and I found the money that the robbers hid in the cave, and it made us rich. We got six thousand dollars apiece - all gold. It was an amazing amount of money when it was piled up. Well, Judge Thatcher he took it and put it out at interest, and it fetched us a dollar a day apiece all the year round - more than a body could tell what to do with. The Widow Douglas she took me for her son, and said she would civilise me; but it was rough living in the house all the time, considering how dismal regular and decent the widow was in all her ways; and so when I couldn't stand it no longer I lit out. I got into my old rags and was free and satisfied. Tom hunted me up and said he was going to start a band of robbers, and asked if I might join.
