Keeping in touch and supporting the School

The School will use the contact details of parents, pupils, alumni, benefactors and the wider community to keep them updated about the activities of the School, or alumni and parent events of interest, including by sending updates and newsletters, by email and by post. Unless the relevant individual objects, the School may also:

- Share personal data about parents and/or alumni, as appropriate, with organisations set up to help establish and maintain relationships with the School community, such as the Haileybury parents association;
- Contact parents and/or alumni by post and email in order to promote and raise funds for the School (and, where appropriate, other worthy causes);
- Should you wish to limit or object to any such use, or would like further information about them, please contact the relevant department on the contact us link below. You always have the right to withdraw consent, where given, or otherwise object to direct marketing or fundraising. However, the School may need nonetheless to retain some of your details (not least to ensure that no more communications are sent to that particular address, email or telephone number).
