1. Introduction

- 1.1 The School has adopted this policy and the accompanying procedure on whistleblowing to enable members of staff to raise concerns internally and in a confidential fashion about fraud, malpractice, health and safety, criminal offences, miscarriages of justice, a failure to comply with legal obligations, inappropriate behaviour or unethical conduct. The policy also provides, if necessary, for such concerns to be raised outside the organisation.

2. About this Policy

- 2.1 The School is committed to conducting its business with honesty and integrity and expects all staff to maintain high standards. However, all organisations face the risk of things going wrong from time to time, or of illegal or unethical conduct unknowingly taking place. A culture of openness and accountability is essential in order to prevent such situations occurring and to address them when they do occur.

3. Aims

- 3.1 The School's policy on whistleblowing is intended to demonstrate that it:
- will not tolerate malpractice;
 - encourages staff to report suspected wrongdoing as soon as possible, in the knowledge that their concerns will be taken seriously and investigated, as appropriate;
 - respects the confidentiality of staff raising concerns and will provide procedures to maintain confidentiality so far as is consistent with progressing the issues effectively;
 - will provide the opportunity to raise concerns outside of the normal line management structure where this is appropriate;
 - will only invoke the School's disciplinary procedure in the case of false, malicious, vexatious or frivolous allegations. The policy seeks to reassure staff that they can raise genuine concerns without fear of reprisal, even if they turn out to be mistaken; and
 - will provide a clear and simple procedure for raising concerns, which is accessible to all members of staff.

4. Scope of this Policy

- 4.1 This procedure is separate from the School's adopted procedures regarding grievances. Individuals should not use the whistleblowing procedure to raise concerns relating to their own personal circumstances, such as the way they have been treated at work. In those cases, the School's Grievance Procedures should be used, as appropriate. If you are uncertain whether something is within the scope of this procedure you should first seek advice from your line manager or from the HR Department.
- 4.2 This procedure is to enable members of staff to express a legitimate concern regarding suspected malpractice within the School.
- 4.3 Malpractice is not easily defined; however, it includes allegations of fraud, financial irregularities, corruption, bribery, dishonesty, acting contrary to the staff code of ethics, criminal activities, or failing to comply with a legal obligation, a miscarriage of justice, or creating or ignoring a serious risk to health, safety or the environment (negligence).
- 4.4 A whistleblower is a person who raises a genuine concern relating to suspected malpractice within the School. If you have any genuine concerns related to suspected malpractice affecting any of the School's activities (a whistleblowing concern) you should report it under this procedure.

- 4.5 If staff and volunteers feel unable to raise an issue with the School or feel that their genuine concerns are not being addressed, they may report their concerns to other whistleblowing channels, such as:
- Protect, an independent whistleblowing charity, previously known as Public Concern at Work (helpline: 020 3117 2502, email: whistle@protect-advice.org.uk, website: <https://protect-advice.org.uk/>).
 - The NSPCC whistleblowing helpline (tel: 0800 028 0285 or email: help@nspcc.org.uk).

5. Confidentiality

- 5.1 We hope that staff will feel able to voice whistleblowing concerns openly under this procedure. However, if you wish to raise a concern confidentially, we will make every effort to keep your identity secret. If it is necessary for anyone investigating the concern to know your identity, this will be discussed with you.
- 5.2 If there is evidence of criminal activity then the police will be informed.
- 5.3 We do not encourage staff to make disclosures anonymously. Proper investigation may be more difficult or impossible if we cannot obtain further information from you. It is also more difficult to establish whether any allegations are credible. Whistleblowers who are concerned about possible reprisals if their identity is revealed should discuss this with the Master, the Deputy Master, or the Bursar and appropriate measures can then be taken to preserve confidentiality. If you are in any doubt you can seek advice from Protect, the independent whistleblowing charity, who offer a confidential helpline. Their contact details are set out above.

6. Raising a Whistleblowing Concern

- 6.1 We hope that in most cases you will be able to raise any concerns with your line manager. You may tell them in person or put the matter in writing if you prefer. They may be able to agree a way of resolving your concern quickly and effectively. In some cases, they may refer the matter to the Master, Deputy Master or Bursar.
- 6.2 However, where the matter is more serious, or you feel that your line manager has not addressed your concern, or you prefer not to raise it with them for any reason, you may raise a whistleblowing concern to the Master, Deputy Master or the Bursar directly. If you feel unable to approach the Master, the Deputy Master or the Bursar directly, then you may contact the Chair of Governors. Contact with the Chair of Governors is made via the Deputy Bursar (c.mills@haileybury.com).
- 6.3 A meeting will be arranged with you as soon as possible to discuss your concern. You may bring a colleague or union representative to any meetings under this procedure. Your companion must respect the confidentiality of your disclosure and any subsequent investigation. You may be required to attend additional meetings in order to provide further information as the concerns raised are investigated.
- 6.4 Any concern raised will be investigated thoroughly and in a timely manner, and appropriate corrective action will be pursued. You will be kept informed of the progress of the investigation and its likely timescale. Whenever possible and subject to third party rights, you will be informed of the resolution. However, sometimes the need for confidentiality may prevent us giving you specific details of the investigation or any disciplinary action taken as a result. You should treat any information about the investigation as confidential.

6.5 If you are not satisfied that your concern is being properly dealt with, you will have a right to raise it in confidence with the School's governing body (Council). Contact with the governors can be made via the Deputy Bursar as above. Alternatively, you can follow the external procedures below.

7. External Procedures

7.1 The aim of this policy is to provide an internal mechanism for reporting, investigating and remedying any wrongdoing in school. In most cases you should not find it necessary to alert anyone externally.

7.2 However, where all internal procedures have been exhausted, a member of staff has a right of access to an external person/body. This may include (depending on the subject matter of the disclosure) HMRC, the Audit Commission, the Health and Safety Executive and/or the Local Authority Designated Officer (where the disclosure relates to a child protection issue).

7.3 It will very rarely, if ever, be appropriate for you to alert the media.

7.4 It should be noted that under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998, there are circumstances where a member of staff may be entitled to raise a concern directly with an external body where:

- i. the individual reasonably believes that exceptionally serious circumstances justify it;
- ii. the individual reasonably believes that the School would conceal or destroy the relevant evidence;
- iii. the individual reasonably believes they would be victimised by the School; or
- iv. where the Secretary of State has ordered it.

7.5 We strongly encourage you to seek advice before reporting a concern to anyone external. The independent whistleblowing charity, Protect, operates a confidential helpline. They also have a list of prescribed regulators for reporting certain types of concern.

8. Malicious Accusations

8.1 False, malicious, vexatious or frivolous accusations will be dealt with under the School's Disciplinary Procedures.

9. Protection from Reprisal or Victimisation

9.1 It is understandable that whistleblowers are sometimes worried about possible repercussions. We aim to encourage openness and will support staff who raise genuine concerns under this policy, even if they turn out to be mistaken.

9.2 No member of staff will suffer a detriment or be disciplined for raising a genuine and legitimate concern, providing that they do so in good faith and following the Whistleblowing procedures. If you believe that you have suffered any such treatment, you should inform the Master, the Deputy Master or Bursar immediately. If the matter is not remedied, you may raise it formally using the School's Grievance Procedures.

9.3 You must not threaten or retaliate against whistleblowers in any way. If you are involved in such conduct you may be subject to disciplinary action.
